Is your local cabinet live but you still can't get fibre broadband?

We know it can be confusing and frustrating if your local cabinet or postcode area has gone live, but you still can't get a fibre broadband service at your own premises. There are a number of reasons why this can happen. Find out about some of the more common causes here.

Meet Robert – working to bring fibre broadband to Scotland

Robert Young is loving the opportunity to be part of the Digital Scotland Superfast Broadband programme team, seeing it as a 'once in a lifetime' chance to make a real and lasting difference to Scotland. Discover more about Robert and get an insight into his role.

New fibre broadband, new opportunities for all

The roll out of fibre broadband across Scotland is continuing apace and it's so exciting to see how it's transforming the way people live, work and play. Since our last newsletter, thousands more homes and businesses can now connect to fibre broadband, including in New Stevenston, Portsoy, Largs, Kilbarchan, Howwood and Dunblane. Glasgow also sees new premises enabled, including in Bailleston, Bridgeton, Croftfoot, Springburn and Steps. A total of 310,000 premises can now enjoy the benefits of fibre broadband, thanks to this programme. Find out whether you can connect to fibre broadband yet on our interactive map.
